

Join us at A.K. Bissell Park on Saturday October 13th, 2012 from 11:00am to 5:00pm for the 3rd Annual Responsible Pet Ownership Festival brought to you by the Oak Ridge Kennel Club and Oak Ridge Veterinary Hospital.

Come visit with area rescue groups, local vendors and enjoy live music provided by Houla Entertainment! Run your dog through a Canine Good Citizen test put on by the Oak Ridge Kennel Club, microchip clinic provided by SARG, watch demonstrations of dog sports, and much more!

Participate in live contests all day including a costume contest to be judged in the center field at 3:00 pm! There will be a large silent auction benefiting pet rescue from 11:00am to 4:00pm. The auction includes a $500 gift certificate from Invisible Fence, an autographed Creed CD, tickets to the Water Park at Wilderness of the Smokies, Knoxville Zoo Passes, Dollywood Tickets, and much more!

106.1 The River will be on site for a live broadcast from 12:00pm until 2:00pm and the first 100 people at the festival will receive a free goody bag!
